

Membership levels and benefits

Chartered members can look forward to enjoying the following benefits:

- Eligibility to serve on the governing structures (global, regional and chapter levels) and other leadership roles of the DoQI, and to represent the DoQI in partner structures,
- Participation in all events and programmes of the DoQI and its approved partners, as agreed
- Eligibility to lead some of the work streams and projects of the organization and its partners as agreed
- Discounted prices on paid events, products and services of the organization and its partners, as agreed
- International recognition by your peers as a Chartered Director of Quality and Improvement in governing bodies of organizations globally,
- Opportunities to network with peers and others in the furtherance of the profession of Quality and Improvement
- Opportunity to mentor and guide certified directors of Quality and Improvement
- Opportunity to adopt and support a community and its Social Quality Activists in its role of advocating for a culture of total quality and improvement
- Eligibility for membership of a panel of subject matter experts, and worldwide recognition as a thought leader in the field of Total Quality and Improvement
- Eligibility to be awarded with a title of Guru (similar recognition given to legends of Quality such as Prof Kaoru Ishikawa, Philip Crosby, Dr Joseph Juran) for exceptional contributions to the Quality field
- Assistance to access vacancies and placement opportunities as a member of a governing body,
- Other benefits as will be advised from time to time (e.g. eligibility for nomination for other awards such as the Nobel Peace Prize, license to sign off, etc.)

Certified members can look forward to enjoying the following benefits:

- Participation in all events and programmes of the DoQI and its approved partners, as agreed
- Eligibility to deputize the Chartered directors in leading some of the work streams and projects of the DoQI and its partners as agreed
- Discounted prices on paid events, products and services of the organization and its partners, as agreed
- International recognition by your peers as a certified Director of Quality and Improvement in governing bodies of organizations globally,
- Opportunities to network with peers and others in the furtherance of the profession of Quality and Improvement
- Opportunity to mentor and guide candidate directors of Quality and Improvement
- Opportunity to deputize the chartered member in their work of adopting and supporting a community and its Social Quality Activists in its role of advocating for a culture of total quality and improvement
- Eligibility to be awarded the Chartered Director of Quality and Improvement status level of membership based on applicable criteria as determined,
- Access to coaching, mentorship, career guidance and other opportunities in the field of Quality and Improvement,
- Assistance to access vacancies and placement opportunities as a member of a governing body,
- Other benefits as will be advised from time to time.

Candidate members can look forward to enjoying the following benefits:

- Participation in all events and programmes of the DoQI and its approved partners, as agreed
- Eligibility to serve in some of the work streams and projects of the organization and its partners, as agreed
- Discounted prices on paid events, products and services of the organization and its partners, as agreed
- Opportunities to network with peers and others in the furtherance of the profession of Quality and Improvement,
- Access to coaching, mentorship, career guidance and other opportunities in the field,

The benefits are available to all members in good standing as per the member regulations to be published.